President's Message

I was reminded recently, while reading the NJSFWC Almanac, of this famous image of Rosie the Riveter who represented millions of women who worked in the defense industry during World War II and made a significant impact on helping the war effort.

These women were ordinary but stepped up to leave their homes and go out into the workplace where they were needed to perform a great service for their country while men were on the battlefields.

During March, Women's History Month, you will see documentaries and publications recognizing many famous influential women who have made important contributions to the fields of science, medicine, politics, art, and other areas. But let's not forget the efforts of ordinary women who, for example, join women's clubs, like ours, throughout the country and volunteer to help individuals and organizations in need in their communities. I believe, there are still "Rosie's" today saying "we can do it."

Remember our club will be celebrating International Women's Day on March 8th by going to see the movie, Cabrini, at the AMC Rockaway Mall. This is a story of an Italian immigrant woman who comes to America in the early 1900's and sees a need to help the most vulnerable in NYC. She takes action by providing food, shelter, educational training to other immigrants and the poor. Some club members will attend the 12:30pm and 3:45pm showings. Join us and meet us at the theater!

Yours in federation friendship,

Janet Walker

Wishing, all who celebrate, Happy St Patrick's and Happy Easter

It is helpful for the club to complete the membership drive in March so the Executive Board can move forward with budget planning for the new fiscal year. Membership renewal time is also a good time to remind members that our club is a member of the state organization, New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs which is a member of the national organization, General Federation of Women Clubs. Part of your dues goes to both organizations to maintain membership. You will see this denoted on the annual budget as federation dues.

Membership information will be emailed to you before the February meetings. You may bring dues money to a meeting in February or March. Venmo is also an option. Contact Nancy Fitch, Membership Chairman with questions - Nancyfitch0321@gmail.com.

February 12th - Monday- 7:00 PM Woman's Club Evening Meeting Denville Community Church 190 Diamond Spring Road

At our Woman's Club Eve Meeting the Program Coordinator of Roots and Wings, Allison Mirabelli, gave a presentation. (operational director Stephanie Tansey presented at January Day Meeting) Allison repeated that Roots and Wings mission is to take in aged out foster care young people and prepare them to live self-sufficient lives. Young clients must be enrolled in an educational or training program prior to acceptance into the Roots and Wings Program. Roots and Wings hold education as a highly prioritized step toward self-sufficiency. Fully paid housing and life skill classes are offered in the program to R&W recipients. Allison further explained some of the volunteer opportunities our club could get involved in from mentoring programs to collecting necessary items such as items needed by the young R&W clients for their housing.

Allison Mirabelli (Program Coordinator of Roots & Wings)

Following the Roots and Wings Presentation our President, Janet Walker started the meeting with noting February is National Heart Awareness Month, started by President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1964. Our members wore red for the evening meeting. Janet mentioned that heart attacks are now the number 1 cause of deaths of women in our nation. Janet then proceeded to cover the agenda for the meeting.

February 13th – Tuesday - 1:00 PM. Woman's Club Day Meeting

Mother Nature had other plans for our Woman's Club Day meeting the following day. With predictions of a snowstorm, in the tristate area, a zoom meeting was arranged by Susan Kleczynski, requested by Janet Walker, and hosted by Karen Lazur. The presenter from St. Peter's, slotted for the day meeting, had to postpone due to school closures in the area. So once again our President Janet Walker sailed us through the agenda, scheduled to be discussed for both our February meetings. Projects past and present were discussed.

A new NJSFWC project is to be voted in March by all NJSFWC clubs from three choices.

Roseanne Jones explained the Terri Lynn Benefit to the potential two new members, on how Terri Lynn orders of nuts and chocolates are taken around the holidays, a certain percentage going to our Woman's club. This NJSFWC annual convention, May 6th to 8th 2024, will be a very special convention, both our members Barbara McCloskey, NJSFWC President Elect and Nancy Levy, NJSFWC correspondent secretary elect will be inaugurated at the meeting. Nominations for 2024-2026 Executive Board will take place at March Meetings. Two potential members were introduced at the day Zoom Meeting. So much more was covered in both the meetings' same agenda, recorded in the minutes and then emailed to all members.

February 14th - Valentine Cookies for Cheshire Home

In spite of the snowstorm that descended upon us during Valentine week, the Operation Cookie Candy Project was a big success! Thank you to all the ladies who baked cookies and donated candy. And thanks to the helpers who delivered the cookies. Somehow during the bad weather all the cookies were delivered to Joanne's (Joan Chiaravalloti) home in time to allow her to package 35 containers for Cheshire Home. The cookies were delivered on Valentine's Day, Susan Weidaseck delivering cookies to Cheshire Home and Joan Chiaravalloti delivered the extra platter of cookies to St Peter's Orphanage in Denville. Great project. Janet Walker

WOMEN'S RIGHTS PIONEERS MONUMENT

<https://www.centralparknyc.org/locations/womens-rights-pioneers-monument> EXCERPT

The first in Central Park to depict real women, this monument honors the trailblazing work of pioneering women's rights advocates Sojourner Truth, Susan B. Anthony, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

Consisting of bronze figures of Sojourner Truth, Susan B. Anthony, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the Women's Rights Pioneers Monument commemorates the centennial of the ratification of the 19th Amendment, which gave women the right to vote. Sponsored by the group Monumental Women and unveiled in August 2020, the monument is the first in Central Park (Manhattan) to depict actual women.

Sculptor Meredith Bergmann shows the three women as activists at work: Sojourner Truth speaking, Susan B. Anthony organizing, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton writing. These visionaries (all of whom were New Yorkers) join William Shakespeare, Robert Burns, Sir Walter Scott, and Fitz-Greene Halleck on the southern end of the Mall. While honoring Truth, Anthony, and Stanton's specific efforts on behalf of women's suffrage, women's civil rights, and the abolition of slavery, the Women's Rights Pioneers Monument also acknowledges the importance of representing women in New York's flagship park.

The history of International Women’s Day

In 1908, against a backdrop of terrible working conditions and exploitation, 15,000 women took to the streets in New York protesting for shorter hours, better pay and voting rights.

The next year the Socialist Party of America announced a National Women’s Day to honour the strikers, and in 1910 it went global – the Socialist International voted for the creation of a Women’s Day to advocate for suffrage. The first International Women’s Day was held in 1911, and more than a million people turned out to rallies in Europe.

For most of the 20th century International Women’s Day was acknowledged and celebrated by people at the grassroots level, a rallying point for social justice. It wasn’t until 1975 – International Women’s Year – that the United Nations adopted International Women’s Day on 8 March, when it is still held.

A. Promotes literacy

Reading is an important skill that everyone should have the opportunity to learn and practice. National Reading Month is a great way to promote reading and encourage more people to pick up a book, whether it's for pleasure or education.

B. Improves creativity

Reading can open our minds to creative new ideas and ways of thinking. By exposing ourselves to different genres and viewpoints, we are able to gain insight into topics we may not have otherwise considered and potentially find solutions to everyday problems.

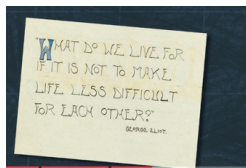

C. Develops social skills

Being able to read opens up the ability to engage in meaningful conversations with others. It allows us to express our thoughts and feelings in an articulate manner and build strong relationships by understanding each other better.

Mary Ann Evans (November 22 1819 - December 22 1880;

Women in the centuries prior to the 20th, before Woman’s Rights achieved, contributed largely to the arts and literature. One of the most prominent women authors in the 19th century, born 1819 under the name of Mary Ann Evans, was George Elliot (the pen name she used to be able to pursue a prolific literary career, shaping our modern literature as well as developing further the idea of empathy.)

George Eliot and Intellectual Culture. Dinah Birch

<https://academic.oup.com/book/4858/chapter-abstract/147208099?redirectedFrom=fulltext#>

More than any other writer of her generation, George Eliot demonstrated that fiction could be animated by new ideas, without losing its hold over the reader's imaginative and emotional life.

Because her novels tell stories about people she persuades us to care about, they reach those who are neither willing nor able to read widely among the abstractions of philosophy, science, or theology. George Eliot showed that fiction could successfully diffuse the most challenging thinking of an intellectually vigorous culture. In doing so, she initiated the development of a generation of writers, including Mary Augusta Ward, George Meredith, Samuel Butler, and Thomas Hardy, who continued her project of writing novels that could draw on the resources of contemporary thought. (Thanks to Ann Weissenburger for introducing to us of an amazing collection of fiction, thru her book club, bringing us worlds of new thoughts and insights into human lives. Thanks extended to Lin Zrike for her book club)
